Tolerance and Fairness

In Britain we accept that other people might have different beliefs, different abilities, different appearance, different families, different likes, different personalities.

If everyone was the same, what would life be like?

Tolerance and Fairness

Is it fair that some people have more money than others?

What if that person has studied and worked hard all their life?

Tolerance and Fairness

Is it fair that a child gets more help and more things than other children?

What if that child has special needs?

Tolerance and Fairness

Is it fair that a child gets to answer more questions in a lesson?

What if that child needs more practice?

Tolerance and Fairness

In Britain, everyone is treated equally and fairly.

Sometimes, people might get more if they need more.

If we are not fair, then we are not tolerating their needs.

"Never look down on anybody unless you're helping them up."
